CONGRESS.

Both Houses are at Work and the Proceedings To-day are Given.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The credentials of Senator Cheney, of New Hampshire, were presented and the oath of office administered.

Mr. Beck introduced a bill to provide for the retirement of United States legal tender and national bank notes of small denominations and for the issue of coin certificates. Sent to the committee on finance.

Mr. Van Wyck introduced a bill exempting from duty imported sugar and molasses and also imported boards, lumber and timber. It received the same reference.

Mr. Morrell offered a resolution citing that a promise of making any revision of the tariff, in a spirit of fairness to all interests, appears so obviously hopeless and impracticable that any further attempts at revision by the present congress are to be regarded as inexpedient and detrimental to the revival of the trade and industry of the country. He gave notice that he would speak on it day after to-morrow.

Mr. Dawes offered a resolution, which was ordered printed, that the committee on finance be instructed to inquire and report, as soon as practicable, what specific reduction can be made in customs duties and internal taxes, which will, in their judgment reduce the receipts to the necessary and economical expenditures of the government without impairing the prosperity and development of home industries or the compensation of home labor.

The select committees, as they existed on the day of the last adjournment, were revived and continued. The senate, out of respect to the three deceased representatives—Price, Beach and Arnot—adjourned.

HOUSE.

After reading the journal, by unanimous consent, the states were called for the introduction of bills and resolutions. The following were referred:

Mr. Herbert, a resolution authorizing the committee on rules, upon one day's notice, to designate any measure for consideration by the house.

Mr. Adams, of Illinois, to change the law in relation to the amount of United States bonds required to be kept on deposit by National banks as security for their circulating notes. It provides that banks having a capital of $500,000 or less shall not be required to keep on deposit bonds in excess of one-tenth of their capital stock as security for their circulating notes.

By Mr. Peters, of Kansas, for the deposit of gold or silver coin or bullion as security for national bank circulation.

By Mr. Parker, to amend the oleomargarine bill.

By Mr. Cox, of New York, to amend section 51 of the revised statues so as to provide that he shall not be entitled to receive two salaries.

The house decided by a vote of 101 to 27 to consider the senate electoral count bill with the proposed house amendments. Caldwell spoke on the bill and the house afterward adjourned.

GENERAL GOSSIP.

The president is somewhat improved in health and was able to preside at the regular cabinet meeting.

The house committee on elections will have before it the Steele election contest and the case of Congressman Pierce, of Rhode Island. It is probable that George W. Steele, of Indiana, will be seated. There is but little interest in the Pierce-Page contest, for Pierce is an eccentric little man and carries no weight.

The Indiana delegation have secured a promise from Secretary Manning that Eb Henderson shall be appointed deputy commissioner of internal revenue.

Congressman Cobb says that the dissatisfaction about offices caused the democratic defeat in Indiana, but adds: "The sulking of the democrats, which has given victories to the republicans, is not intended, I think, as a slap at the administration. It is the natural result of inevitable disappointment. Indiana is a democratic state, and will roll up a large majority for the next presidential candidate of the democratic party, if it should be Cleveland. No other man, I believe, would poll so large a majority in Indiana. He is certainly the strongest man the democrats can nominate."

Chairman Morrison, of the ways and means committee, will serve an early notice on the house of the day he proposes to call up the tariff bill. He intends to make another earnest effort to reduce war taxes.

The commissions of sixty presidential postmasters will expire during the present month. The president will have the appointments of about 150 postmasters, made during the recess, to send to the senate for confirmation.

In the senate, the unfinished business is a vetoed pension bill reported from a committee with a recommendation that it be passed over the veto. The unfinished business in the house is the bill to indemnify the Chinese sufferers by the Rock Springs massacre, and next in order is the Hennepin canal scheme. Should no new measures be introduced, neither house could properly consider the business now before it during the entire session.

King Humbert sent to President Cleveland a copy of the edition of Dante recently printed for Victor Emanuel..

The democrats will have a majority of fourteen in the lower house of congress.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger will officiate at solemn services at the Cathedral tomorrow morning at 10:30. The feast of the Immaculate Conception is to do honor to the mother of Christ, who is the especial patroness of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, as well as the patroness of the United States, having been so declared by the council of Baltimore in 1846 and ratified by the late Pope Pius the IX.

Affairs in France.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—M Floquet has been interested with the formation of a cabinet. He is now engaged in the task.

Premier DeFreycinet announced in the chamber of deputies to-day the resignation of the ministry, and the chamber at once adjourned.

The French transport, Chandernago, which was reported lost Thursday last, with 1,200 troops aboard, has arrived safely at the port of Lourano, Annam.

A Treasurer Short.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Dec. 7.—John R. Huffman, who retired a few weeks ago from the office of county treasurer, is $10,000 short in his accounts. Huffman claims to have checks and certificates in bank sufficient to cover $7,000 of this amount, but has not produced them. It is believed that he is making an earnest endeavor to make good the loss.

LABOR FEDERATION.

Its Promoters in Session at Columbus---The New York Tribune is Severely Attacked.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 7.—The federation of organized trades and labor unions of the United States and Canada met in annual session to-day with a large number of delegates in attendance. It is expected they will form a union. President Gamper says he regrets the non-action of the Amalgamated association, looking to confederation and failing to be represented. The session will hear the report of the legislative committee this afternoon.

Some excitement was created in the hall by John R. Winders, of San Francisco, at the head of the International Typographical union there, beginning an agitation for the expulsion of W. F. G. Price, the correspondent of the New York Tribune, which was denounced as a leading rat office. The question will be brought up this afternoon.

VERY SAD.

Mr. James Ryan Frightened Into a Comotose State.

Mr. James Ryan, the truckman, was superintending the removal of a huge stone from a Nickel Plate car to one of his wagons this morning. The slab slipped and almost covered a workman. Mr. Ryan supposed it had killed his employe and grew faint at the unfounded belief. He was taken home and there lost his reason, replying to all questions, "He is under the stone." The unfortunate man lies in a comotose condition, unconscious to all his surroundings, but evidently suffering untold agony. He was similarly effected a year ago and fears for his recovery are now entertained. Some incline to believe that Mr. Ryan, himself, was injured by the falling stone.

STRONGER

Is the Democratic Position in Indiana To-day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 7.—In all the contests and recounts so far where seats in the legislature are involved, the democrats have strengthened their position. In the two recounts insisted upon by republicans, the democratic majorities were increased, and the case against McKey is regarded as very strong. Some prominent republicans insist that Harrison will capture the seat in the United States senate, but the rank and file of the party are perceptibly weakening.

Convict Dead.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 7.—George Watt, the convict shot by Deputy Warden McKean in the Riverside penitentiary, last evening, for assaulting one of the guards with a knife, died this morning from the effects of his injuries.

HE WAS CAUGHT.

The Journalist Who Played Mexicans for $30,000 in Irons.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The enterprising person who recently sold $30.000 worth of unauthorized tickets for the Patti concert in the City of Mexico has been captured, it is believed, by Mexican detectives. From dispatches received at Henry E. Abbey's office it is supposed the swindler has been found within thirty miles of the City of Mexico. The man is supposed to be one Charles Bourton, an alleged Parisian journalist, who lived in this city for a few weeks last fall.

The mayor of New York issued an order for the closing of all stores on Sunday.

Ex-President Arthur's will was admitted to probate in New York. His estate was valued at $150,000. His son gets one-half at the age of thirty, and his daughter the other at the age of twenty-three, Mrs. McElroy being her guardian.

John Jaffray, of Chicago, lost his pocket-book in a New York theatre Friday night, containing over $4,000 in money. He found it intact the next morning under the seat he had occupied.

The jury for the second trial of McQuade, one of New York's boodle aldermen, was completed. He received $20,000 for his vote, it is said, and has already paid over $25,000 to attorneys for his defense.

MR. MANNING.

His Report is Criticised and Commended.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The Tribune comments on and criticizes the report of Secretary Manning, styling it a speech on the silver question and tariff. The Times rather praises its honesty and manliness, while the Washington special to the World says that "Mr. Manning's proposition for retiring the greenbacks and supplying their place with silver and gold certificates is not popular and will not be approved."

Death of Jonas Astry.

Mr. Jonas Astry, one of the pioneer settlers of Springfield township, died last Wednesday at the advanced age of seventy-seven years. He was a hard working farmer and a kind and respected citizen. His illness was very brief, working until thirty-five hours before his death. He did not recognize anyone that came in after he was taken ill. His remains will be interred at Maysville. He leaves many relatives and friends to mourn his loss. What a blessing it would be if every young man now might have such a record of industry at the close of his life.

Carl Poehler, of Wayne township, died yesterday morning and his funeral is announced for Thursday afternoon. Mr. Poehler is one of the oldest residents of the county and has been here almost half a century. Mr. W. D. Page is the owner of a handsome, smooth-coat St. Bernard dog. The noble animal stands thirty-two inches high and is a picture. He is styled "Rector II," from Joe Emmett's famous "Rector I." He comes from the kennel of E. B. Hern, at Passaic, N. J., and has been at all the bench shows, winning this year alone $145 in premiums. He carried off the honors twice at Milwaukee, and at the New York, Chicago and St. Louis exhibitions he won the laurels and money. He was chained near Mr. Page's desk when THE SENTINEL fancier looked at him this morning and if any gentleman is thirsting for editorial gore we urge him to call at the News office before Mr. Page takes the "editor's best friend" to his home. "Rector II" is a beauty, with the marks and characteristics of his species more perfect than an artist could paint them and a registered pedigree reaching back to the Alps.

Incidents and Events of Interest to People of Fort Wayne.

Pat Foley was killed in the Spottsville mines Friday.

Muncie had three fires Friday night. Loss about $1,000.

The Loomis factory, burned at Laporte a few days ago, will be rebuilt.

T. W. Davis, Cartersburg, assigned Friday. Assets, $20,000; liabilities, $40,000.

Joe Fettig, Logansport, had his arm crushed at Monticello, Friday, while coupling cars.

Frank Gorman, Shelbyville, charged with blackmailing by Dr. S. Saulsbury, has been bound over to court.

Roe Gillespie, clerk in a Knightstown hotel, confessed to having slandered a young lady to escape prosecution.

A special election for commissioner in Elkhart county, gave H. Bemenderfer (dem.) 60 majority over A. Yates, (rep.).

Thomas O. Peacock, a photographer, is on trial at Rockville, charged with making "loud" pictures of a respectable young girl of that place.

Elmer Sanders, at Greenwood depot, is the latest fool who "didn't know it was loaped," ond Harry Wood was shot in the hip with a revolver.

The Friends have disowned Malinda Dennis, of Wayne county, who recently served a three months' sentence and settled a fine of $500 for stabbing her husband with a butcher-knife.

The republican sheriff and auditor-elect and five other republicans of Orange county have been arrested by the United States marshal for illegal practices at the recent election.

A child, near Marion, sitting on a chair, dropped a nursing bottle, breaking it; looking over to see it, the child fell, striking its head on a piece of glass, receiving fatal injuries.

William McCarthy, one of the oldest residents of Tippecanoe county, died about midnight Saturday. He was sixty-three years old and a brother-in-law of General Hickenlooper, of Cincinnati.

Burglars took considerable cash and $300 worth of silver from the residence of Banker A. H. Bowen, at Deiphi, Friday night. Other houses were entered and valuables taken. The parties are evidently professionals.

Mr. Bilby is now being tried at Wabash for an attempt to kill Peter Carvey and son in Miami county last June. Insanity and self-defense are the two chains on which Bilby hangs his case. Hon. E. S. Daniels, of Logansport, and Hon. J. L. Farrar, of Peru, are defendant's attorneys.

The principals and teachers of the Linwood school, near Lafayette, have been entirely exonerated. A plot was revealed by one of the boys, implicating half of the school, in which they agreed to disobey their teachers, circulate false charges against them and thus endeavor to secure a teacher's dismissal.

Faith cures at Mrs. Woodworth's meetings are causing great excitement at Muncie, Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson, J. F. Keener, Mrs. Charles Halloch and Mrs. Rev. Ruley, being among those claiming to have received great relief. A physician examined Mrs. Woodworth while in a trance and pronounced it "jimmery fits," yet the interest continues.

Newspaper circles at Lafayette are rife with journalistic changes and ventures. Ex-City Attorney Isaac Parsons and J. E. Mick, proprietors of the Weekly Bulletin, have purchased the Weekly Despatch, both democratic, and will consolidate them into the Bulletin-Despatch, which will be issued as a morning democratic daily. The organ of the Knights of Labor, the Labor World, will, on the 15th inst, begin a morning daily; and ex-Senator Francis Johnson, editor of the Deutsch-Amerikaner, will, on January 1, commence the publication of a daily morning paper in German. Lafayette, with her 25,000 inhabitants, will then have four morning and two evening dailies—three republican, two democratic and one labor union. Politically this city is about a tie, and each paper desires the city printing, and a big fight will be made in the next spring election.

"Lost in London."

"Lost in London," a fine spectacular drama, was produced by Newton Beers and his superb company at the Academy of Music last evening. Almost every seat in the house was occupied and the enthusiastic manner in which the rendition of the various characters in the piece was received by the audience indicated a high appreciation of the drama and the talent of the company. Limited space forbids a lengthy notice of the entertainment, but we cannot refrain from noticing a few of the leading casts. Newton Beers, as "Job Armroyd," and Jessie Lee Randolph, as "Nellie Armroyd," were prominent characters in the drama and several times during the evening, when their parts were particularly pathetic, the sobs of tender-hearted women were heard on all sides. Even strong men were suddenly reminded of a "distressing cold in the head" and were unusually active in applying handkerchiefs to watery eyes. Lauren Rees, as "Gilbert Featherstone," the villain and libertine in the plot, performed his part in a creditable manner. Mr. Rees is young, very handsome both in physique and features, and is probably one of the most promising actors on the stage. We predict for him a high standing in his profession. The Pampipe singers are a new feature and very entertaining. Their selections were excellent and each one was heartily applauded. Miss Kate Romain, a contralto of considerable note, sang some beautiful solos, which were repeatedly enchored. In short, the entire company are good and will undoubtedly play to crowded houses during their engagement here. They remain all week.

Narrow Escapes—One Life Lost.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 7.—Early this morning in a fire or Eutaw street, near Preston, the police rescued thirteen persons from the buildings, but Mrs. Ann Pack, aged ninety years, was burned to death.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The weather indications are as follows:

Indiana, fair weather, stationary temperature.

Pure blood is absolutely necessary in order to enjoy perfect health. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and strengthens the system.

They are Not sorry.

There is one thing nobody ever regrets—that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Its range is so wide, and its good effects so sure, that nothing else, except good nursing, are needed in a great majority of cases. Buy it, try it, and afterwards it will not require any praise from us.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

ALE as a name for malt liquor was probably first introduced into England by the Danes, as the name ol is still the name of malt liquor among the Scandinavian nations. The Anglo-Saxons used the word beer until the irruption of the Danes, but the word beer was gradually disused, and the name ale was general until the introduction of hops from Germany in the reign of Henry VIII. With the hops came again into use the German or Saxon word bier, or beer, which was at first applied only to the hopped liquor to distinguish it from ale—that which was unhopped.

GREAT ENTERPRISE.

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE, with its enormous circulation (edition of November number is a quarter of a million) and great resources, has never undertaken a greater work than the one which will be its important feature during the coming year. This is a history of our own country in its most critical time, as set forth in

THE LIFE OF LINCOLN,

BY HIS CONFIDENTIAL SECRETARIES, JOHN G. NICOLAY AND COL. JOHN HAY.

This great work, begun with the sanction of President Lincoln, and continued under the authority of his son, the Hon. Robt. T. Lincoln, is the only full and authoritative record of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Its authors were friends of Lincoln before his presidency; they were most intimately associated with him as private secretaries throughout his term of office, and to them were transferred upon Lincoln's death all his private papers. Here will be told the inside history of the civil war and of President Lincoln's administration,—important details of which have hitherto remained unrevealed, that they might first appear in this authentic history. By reason of the publication of this work, which has been followed with unflagging interest by a great audience, will occupy less space during the coming year, but will by no means be entirely omitted. Stories of naval engagements, prison life, etc., will appear.

THE WAR SERIES,

NOVELS AND STORIES

include a novel by Frank R. Stockton, two novelettes by George W. Cable, stories by Mary Hallock Foote, "Uncle Remus," Edward Eggleston, and other American authors.

SPECIAL FEATURES

(with illustrations) include a series of articles on affairs in Russia and Siberia, by George Kennan, author of "Tent Life in Siberia," who has just returned from a most eventful visit to Siberian prisons; papers on the Labor Problem; English Cathedrals; Dr. Eggleston's Religious Life in the American Colonies; Men and Women of Queen Anne's Reign, by Mrs. Oliphant; Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Astrology, etc.; Astronomical papers; articles on Bible History, etc.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM

POWERFUL PROOFS.

A Sufferer for 15 Years.

Kankakee, Ill.

My mother has been a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism for the last fifteen years. Her limbs became so swollen that she could not get about. I gave up all hopes of her recovery. As a last resort I tried St. Jacobs Oil. The first application gave her relief; and six bottles has performed a cure. J. J. SCHUBERT.

Had Become Chronic.

De Pere, Wis.

For five years I suffered with inflammatory rheumatism, which became chronic. Tried various preparations, consulted the best physicians, but all without avail. I was compelled to use crutches. I had given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I heard of St. Jacobs Oil. Used only three bottles and am now a well man. JOHN RILEY.

Worth Its Weight in Gold.

New Alexandria, Ohio.

I was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for several weeks to such an extent that I could neither feed nor dress myself without assistance. I purchased a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and after using two-thirds of it I was entirely cured. I consider it worth its weight in gold. C. E. JONES.

Suffered Untold Agony and Cured.

Amesbury, Mass.

For two years I have been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism in my foot, the pain being so great that I was unable to touch it without suffering untold agony. I tried everything without obtaining any relief, when I began to use St. Jacobs Oil. With the first application, the pain almost instantaneously ceased, and continuing its use I was entirely cured and have felt no pain since. A. J. DOAK, Mngr. American House.

THE MOEN-WILSON CASE.

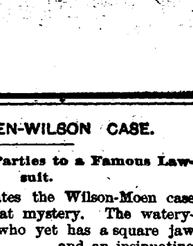

The Principal Parties to a Famous Lawsuit.

At present dates the Wilson-Moen case stands as the great mystery. The watery-eyed young man who yet has a square jaw and an insinuating nose, you observe, sues Philip L. Moen, Esq., for $100,000, alleged to be due him on a contract. There had already been paid him on that contract $350,000, he says, and it is admitted that a very large sum had been paid. Wilson was a poor and illiterate youth who did not learn to read and write when he was a boy. He never went to school. He has never given any evidence of being a poor boy who worked his way up till providence blessed his labors and made him a millionaire. On the contrary, the only marked ability he seems to have manifested was a talent for spending money. That talent he cultivated assiduously and joyously, till he fairly rivaled Coal Oil Johnny in capacity to run through with wealth.

LEVI P. WILSON.

The defendant in the case is Philip L. Moen, of Worcester, Mass. The farmers of America will immediately be in sympathy in a lump with Wilson, when it is mentioned that Moen made his millions out of the barbed wire fence patents, of which he is owner. They will say they hope Wilson will gouge him well, as he has gouged them with barbed wires for the past twenty years. However, the barbed wire fence patent has run out, and Wilson plainly has gouged him well.

PHILIP L. MOEN.

Moen owns a beautiful residence in Worcester, and is a highly respected citizen. He refused to pay the $100,000, hence the law suit, which he has won at the first trial. But the law, instead of clearing up the matter, has only deepened the mystery. What did Moen pay Wilson so much money for? However weak Mr. Levi Wilson's whiskers are, his power of keeping a secret is sufficiently strong. Moen denies there was any secret at all worth speaking of, and declares it was a case of pure blackmail. But why, then, did he pay this shrewd young man $350,000?

So far, the affair shows that secrets can be kept, even in our age of the world, in spite of newspapers and detectives. One surmise is that there was a woman story in the respectable Mr. Moen's case, and that he wouldn't have had it get out for all the world. Innocent citizens of the first water have been trapped by atrociously wicked women before now, even when the citizen was 60 years old and no handsomer than Mr. Moen.

But on the other hand, Wilson says, in the statement made to his lawyer, that Moen "told me to dress the other man well, and give him everything he wanted, at his expense." According to this, it was a man who was in the case. Wilson claimed only to be the agent for this other man, and says the sums of money were got for him. Moen again vowed that there was no other man, and that Wilson spent the money "his own self."

Moody's Chicago Church Burned.

CHICAGO AVENUE OR MOODY'S CHURCH.

The friends of Dwight L. Moody, the celebrated evangelist, were pained to hear that the church for which he had collected $100,100 from all parts of the globe was destroyed. The fire was caused by an overheated flue, and will only cause a temporary inconvenience to the congregation, as, although the interior was destroyed, the loss will be but $20,000, while the insurance is $60,000 on the building.

Moody's church was begun in 1873 and finished in two years. The main auditorium had a seating capacity of 2,000, while the lecture room would accommodate about 900 more.

The Texas Tribune says: "The late atmospheric freshness has brought on many cases of cough and cold and Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is in great demand." "What wound did ever heal but by degrees?" The thousand cases daily cured by Salvation Oil.

A most amusing scene to philosophic spirits recently occurred at a London Court in a litigation concerning the ownership of a donkey. The presiding Judge, borrowing a hint from Solomon and the Caliphs of Bagdad, had the animal brought into Court to test the allegation of the defendant that it would eat bread or vegetables offered it "with Lord Salisbury's compliments," but would reject the same with symptoms of loathing and contempt when Mr. Gladstone was named as the donor. As it happened, the wily quadruped, when challenged by the claimant, not only devoured indiscriminately the Troy and Liberal carrots, showing no partisan spirit whatever, but, when the experiment was acknowledged a failure set up such mixed notes of exultation and protest that the magistrate, deafened by the outrageous bray, summarily dismissed the claim

"Caveat Emptor," the phrase it is Latin,
It means "let the buyer beware."
A maxim in law which comes rather pat, in
The truth that I wish to declare;
Whene'r an invention that's good for prevention
Of pain has a popular fame,
You'll find, in all nations, arise imitations
Palmed off 'just as good,' or "the same."
If POND'S EXTRACT buying, you find seller trying
With counterfeits you to ensnare,
The genuine choose, the spurious refuse;
Remember, let buyer beware.

Milt Troutman, who had his hand crushed some time ago while coupling cars at Meadville, Pa., soon after the accident, which necessitated the amputation of his hand, complained of his lost hand paining him, and seeming to be in a cramped condition. He said that his thumb was closed in the palm of his hand and his fingers were clutched tightly to it. L. M. Williams and others, prompted by curiosity, secured the assistance of the German employed by Dr. Griswould, who had buried the hand, and disinterred it. They found it exactly in the condition described by Troutman, and what is more strange and marvelous, when they opened the fingers of the hand, Troutman, who was not aware of their actions, experienced plainly the sensation, and was relieved of the pain he suffered.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

After Diphtheria.

Diphtheria is a terrible disease; requiring the greatest medical skill to effect a comblete cure. Even when its power is proken, it clings to the patient with great pesistency, and often leaves the system poisoned and prostrated. Just here Hood's Sarsaparilla does a vast amount of good, expelling impurities from the plood, giving it richness and vitality, while it renovates and strenghtens the system.

Judge Mitchell, of the supreme court, recently rendered the following decision, which is of some interest to trustees: "When trustees with others have become general depositors in a bank which has become insolvent, and whose assets are in the hands of a receiver for distribution among all its creditors, according to law, such trustees stand in relation of debtor and creditor between themselves and the bank and are upon no different level from other general depositors."

The state statistician has received reports from 635 townships of the state regarding the killing of sheep by dogs and the payment for them. In these townships a total of $51,872 has been paid for sheep thus killed, an average of $81 to the township, and if this ratio is kept up the total losses paid in the state would amount to $72,588. The number of sheep killed by dogs in 1885. so far as reported, was 29,582, which, at an estimated value of $3.50 each, would give a total of $103.399. The entire dog tax collected amounted to $185,972.

The Indianapolis Journal and other republican papers are devoting columns of space to convince Judge Lowry that it is useless for him to make a contest against Captain J. B. White. This sudden interest in Mr. Lowry's case from such a source is decidedly refreshing, and positively as queer as the statement of local papers that the governor's certificate has some weight in the controversy over Mr. White's eligibility. It is dawning on people that this question has had sufficient airing and it ought to be laid aside until such a time as congress sees fit to consider it. It is annoying to Captain White, annoying to Judge Lowry and tiresome to a long-suffering public.

No theatrical event this season has elicited so much interest as the appearance of Mr. Robert Downing here Friday night as "Spartacus," the Gladiator. Mr. Downing is the youngest tragedian who ever starred, and from his very first appearance achieved success, his wonderful talent bringing him to the front at once, on a level with Forest and McCullough. Mr. Downing's youth, magnificent physique, and fine personal appearance have added to his success, but the personal magnetism of the man is something wonderful, and next to a profound study of his art, it has been one of the most important factors in his rapid advancement.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union has issued a fervent appeal to the Knights of Labor to co-operate with them for the cause of temperance. The address is a lengthy document and says: We appreciate the tendency of your great movement to elevate women industrially to their rightful place by claiming that they should have equal pay for equal work, recognizing them as officers and members of your societies, and advocating the ballot in their hands as their rightful weapon of self-help in our representative government. As temperance women, we have been especially glad to note your hostile attitude toward the saloon, the worst foe of women and of the workingman and of the home. We read with joy of the vow made by the newly-elected officers of the Knights of Labor at the convention in Richmond, Va., when, with hands raised to Heaven, they pledged themselves to be total abstainers throughout their term of office.

John G. Stokes, a school teacher at New Haven, has had John and Loyal Brooks arrested for an aggravated assault on him. He says the fellows got him into a corner and maneuvered as though they meant to kill him. Justice Ryan is hearing the rural quarrel.

Dr. C. B. Stemen, James Rogers and J. F. Wing go to Indianapolis to-morrow to take the 32nd degree in Scottish Rite Masonary. John Lillie, Joe Bell, G. W. Pixley, Dr. G. W. Loag and Sam B. Sweet will witness their initiation into grand mysteries.

Harmony lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., met last evening in special session and completed arrangements to attend the funeral of their late brother, W. H. Miller, which will occur to-morrow afternoon, from his late residence, on Runion avenue. The city band will lead the cortege.

The Gazette intimates that the Knights of Labor are going to start a co-operative grocery store here. There is not a monopoly in this business here and it is doubtful if such a scheme would be profitable, especially in view of the cheap prices prevailing at the Fruit House and other stores.

Josephine Fielding was yesterday divorced from Fred Fielding, whose love for Josephine grew chilly. This is the woman who prosecuted John Anderson for an alleged assault on her at a picnic at Rome City a year or two ago and had the young man sentenced to prison for seven years in a northern court.

The Methodist Episcopal churches of the city have inaugurated a campaign of union revival work, to continue for an indefinite period. These services are being held at the Wayne street M. E. church, corner of West Wayne street and Broadway, where they will be continued for a time, when they will be taken to the Berry street M. E. church.

Mrs. Julia Scott has applied for a divorce from Colonel John A. Scott, the bill poster and theatrical manager. She charges cruelty, specifying that he knocked her down, choked her and pointed a revolver at her. She also alleges that he chopped his furniture up with an axe and is characterized by her as a "dangerous man." Mr. P. B. Colerick paints Scott as a very bad man and the colonel will file a reply. Sheriff Nelson last evening at 5 o'clock served notice of the suit on Mr. Scott and an order restraining him from disposing of his personal property. Colonel Scott's rejoinder may be very spicy, and we await his side of the matrimonial engagement.

Joseph Biechele's Banner and Pearl soaps are sold in Fort Wayne by all good grocers. They never fail to give good satisfaction. Every good housekeeper should use them because they will do more washing than any other soaps sold at the same and even at a higher price. A. C. Trentman is filling orders to the trade as also Wm. ON THE WABASH.

A Special Train Knocks a Wagon and Its Occupants Sky High.

While John and James Morgan (colored) were crossing the Wabash track on Indiana avenue, at Lafayette, with a two-horse wagon, along came a special train at a fast speed, carrying the officials of the road from an inspecting tour. Then came a crash, and the wagon was instantly converted into kindling wood. The two men were thrown headlong twenty-five feet into the air, and one of the horses was killed and the other terribly mangled. John Morgan was injured internally, and will likely die. His brother James was badly cut in the head and otherwise bruised.

THIS IS BUSINESS.

A Big Rubber Manufactory Offered Fort Wayne.

FAIRFIELD, CONN., Dec. 3, 1886.
To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

Having been in Fort Wayne and noting it to be a good place to locate a factory, I will make the following offer to the citizens of Fort Wayne or to those having capital and wishing to place it into one of the best paying businesses of the present time: I will start a factory for the manufacture of rubber clothing, carriage covers and rubber blankets. I have had seven years experience in the manufacture of rubber goods and can bring the best of reference. The factory would employ about 100 hands at the start, part males and part females. Now here is a chance for capitalists that answer this inside of ten days.

Yours respectfully,
D. H. MURPHY,
(P. O. box, 93.) Fairfield, Conn.

JUDGE TAYLOR.

He Is Aroused From a Burning Building at Huntington.

A house belonging to H. M. Purviance, at Huntington, caught fire Sunday morning. It adjoins the Exchange hotel, and being a frame structure burned like oil. In a room in this building slept Hon. R. S. Taylor, of Fort Wayne, and when a stream of water was turned on the house it flashed through the window and into the room occupied by the Judge. He had left orders to be called for the train east on the Wabash, but did not fancy the new method of being awakened. He, however, got out of his apartment quickly and saw the timber cindered behind him.

CONGRESS.

Both Houses are at Work and the Proceedings To-day are Given.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The credentials of Senator Chaney, of New Hampshire, were presented and the oath of office administered.

Mr. Beck introduced a bill to provide for the retirement of United States legal tender and national bank notes of small denominations and for the issue of coin certificates. Sent to the committee on finance.

Mr. Van Wyck introduced a bill exempting from duty imported sugar and molasses and also imported boards, lumber and timber. It received the same reference.

Mr. Morrell offered a resolution citing that a promise of making any revision of the tariff, in a spirit of fairness to all interests, appears so obviously hopeless and impracticable that any further attempts at revision by the present congress are to be regarded as inexpedient and detrimental to the revival of the trade and industry of the country. He gave notice that he would speak on it day after to-morrow.

Mr. Dawes offered a resolution, which was ordered printed, that the committee on finance be instructed to inquire and report, as soon as practicable, what specific reduction can be made in customs duties and internal taxes, which will, in their judgment reduce the receipts to the necessary and economical expenditures of the government without impairing the prosperity and development of home industries or the compensation of home labor.

The select committees, as they existed on the day of the last adjournment, were revived and continued. The senate, out of respect to the three deceased representatives—Price, Beach and Arnot—adjourned.

HOUSE.

After reading the journal, by unanimous consent, the states were called for the introduction of bills and resolutions. The following were referred:

Mr. Herbert, a resolution authorizing the committee on rules, upon one day's notice, to designate any measure for consideration by the house.

Mr. Adams, of Illinois, to change the law in relation to the amount of United States bonds required to be kept on deposit by National banks as security for their circulating notes. It provides that banks having a capital of $500,000 or less shall not be required to keep on deposit bonds in excess of one-tenth of their capital stock as security for their circulating notes.

By Mr. Peters, of Kansas, for the deposit of gold or silver coin or bullion as security for national bank circulation.

By Mr. Parker, to amend the oleomargarine bill.

By Mr. Cox, of New York, to amend section 53 of the revised statutes so as to provide that he shall not be entitled to receive two salaries.

The house decided by a vote of 161 to 27 to consider the senate electoral count bill with the proposed house amendments. Caldwell spoke on the bill and the house afterward adjourned.

GENERAL GOSSIP.

The president is somewhat improved in health and was able to preside at the regular cabinet meeting.

The house committee on elections will have before it the Steele election contest and the case of Congressman Pierce, of Rhode Island. It is probable that George W. Steele, of Indiana, will be seated. There is but little interest in the Pierce-Page contest, for Pierce is an eccentric little man and carries no weight.

The Indiana delegation have secured a promise from Secretary Manning that Eb Henderson shall be appointed deputy commissioner of internal revenue.

Congressman Cobb says that the dissatisfaction about offices caused the democratic defeat in Indiana, but adds: "The sulking of the democrats, which has given victories to the republicans, is not intended, I think, as a slap at the administration. It is the natural result of inevitable disappointment. Indiana is a democratic state, and will roll up a large majority for the next presidential candidate of the democratic party, if it should be Cleveland. No other man, I believe, would poll so large a majority in Indiana. He is certainly the strongest man the democrats can nominate."

Chairman Morrison, of the ways and means committee, will serve an early notice on the house of the day he proposes to call up the tariff bill. He intends to make another earnest effort to reduce the taxes.

The commissions of sixty presidential postmasters will expire during the present month. The president will have the appointments of about 150 postmasters, made during the recess, to send to the senate for confirmation.

In the senate, the unfinished business is a vetoed pension bill reported from a committee with a recommendation that it be passed over the veto. The unfinished business in the house is the bill to indemnify the Chinese sufferers by the Rock Springs massacre, and next in order is the Hennepin canal scheme. Should no new measures be introduced, neither house could properly consider the business now before it during the entire session.

King Humbert sent to President Cleveland a copy of the edition of Dante recently printed for Victor Emanuel.

The democrats will have a majority of fourteen in the lower house of congress.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Dwenger will officiate at solemn services at the Cathedral tomorrow morning at 10:30. The feast of the Immaculate Conception is to do honor to the mother of Christ, who is the especial patroness of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, as well as the patroness of the United States, having been so declared by the council of Baltimore in 1846 and ratified by the late Pope Pius the IX.

Affairs in France.

PARIS, Dec. 7.—M Floquet has been interested with the formation of a cabinet. He is now engaged in the task.

Premier DeFreycinet announced in the chamber of deputies to-day the resignation of the ministry, and the chamber at once adjourned.

The French transport, Chandernagor, which was reported lost Thursday last, with 1,200 troops aboard, has arrived safely at the port of Lourano, Annam.

A Treasurer Short.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Dec. 7.—John R. Huffman, who retired a few weeks ago from the office of county treasurer, is $10,000 short in his accounts. Huffman claims to have checks and certificates in bank sufficient to cover $7,000 of this amount, but has not produced them. It is believed that he is making an earnest endeavor to make good the loss.

LABOR FEDERATION.

Its Promoters in Session at Columbus---The New York Tribune is Severely Attacked.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 7.—The federation of organized trades and labor unions of the United States and Canada met in annual session to day with a large number of delegates in attendance. It is expected they will form a union. President Gamper says he regrets the non-action of the Amalgamated association, looking to confederation and failing to be represented. The session will hear the report of the legislative committee this afternoon.

Some excitement was created in the hall by John R. Winders, of San Francisco, at the head of the International Typographical union there, beginning an agitation for the expulsion of W. F. G. Price, the correspondent of the New York Tribune, which was denounced as a leading rat office. The question will be brought up this afternoon.

VERY SAD.

Mr. James Ryan Frightened Into a Comatose State.

Mr. James Ryan, the truckman, was superintending the removal of a huge stone from a Nickel Plate car to one of his wagons this morning. The slab slipped and almost covered a workman. Mr. Ryan supposed it had killed his employe and grew faint at the unfounded belief. He was taken home and there lost his reason, replying to all questions, "He is under the stone." The unfortunate man lies in a comatose condition, unconscious to all his surroundings, but evidently suffering untold agony. He was similarly affected a year ago and fears for his recovery are now entertained. Some incline to believe that Mr. Ryan, himself, was injured by the falling stone.

STRONGER

Is the Democratic Position in Indiana To-day.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 7.—In all the contests and recounts so far where seats in the legislature are involved, the democrats have strengthened their position. In the two recounts instituted upon by republicans, the democratic majorities were increased, and the case against McKey is regarded as very strong. Some prominent republicans insist that Harrison will capture the seat in the United States senate, but the rank and file of the party are perceptibly weakening.

Convict Dead.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 7.—George Watt, the convict shot by Deputy Warden McKean in the Riverside penitentiary, last evening, for assaulting one of the guards with a knife, died this morning from the effects of his injuries.

HE WAS CAUGHT.

The Journalist Who Played Mexicans for $30,000 in Irons.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The enterprising person who recently sold $30,000 worth of unauthorized tickets for the Patti concert in the City of Mexico has been captured, it is believed, by Mexican detectives. From dispatches received at Henry E. Abbey's office it is supposed the swindler has been found within thirty miles of the City of Mexico. The man is supposed to be one Charles Bourton, an alleged Parisian journalist, who lived in this city for a few weeks last fall.

The mayor of New York issued an order for the closing of all stores on Sunday.

Ex-President Arthur's will was admitted to probate in New York. His estate was valued at $150,000. His son gets one-half at the age of thirty, and his daughter the other at the age of twenty-three, Mrs. McElroy being her guardian.

John Jaffray, of Chicago, lost his pocket-book in a New York theatre Friday night, containing over $4,000 in money. He found it intact the next morning under the seat he had occupied.

The jury for the second trial of McQuade, one of New York's boodle aldermen, was completed. He received $20,000 for his vote, it is said, and has already paid over $25,000 to attorneys for his defense.

MR. MANNING.

His Report is Criticised and Commended.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The Tribune comments on and criticizes the report of Secretary Manning, styling it a speech on the silver question and tariff. The Times rather praises its honesty and manliness, while the Washington special to the World says that "Mr. Manning's proposition for retiring the greenbacks and supplying their place with silver and gold certificates is not popular and will not be approved."

Death of Jonas Astry.

Mr. Jonas Astry, one of the pioneer settlers of Springfield township, died last Wednesday at the advanced age of seventy-seven years. He was a hard-working farmer and a kind and respected citizen. His illness was very brief, working until thirty-five hours before his death. He did not recognize anyone that came in after he was taken ill. His remains will be interred at Maysville. He leaves many relatives and friends to mourn his loss. What a blessing it would be if every young man now might have such a record of industry at the close of his life.

Samuel Miller, the brakeman, who was run over and killed by a freight train on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, north of Rome City, on Sunday, will be buried from his mother's residence, No. 83 Williams street, to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Carl Poehler, of Wayne township, died yesterday morning and his funeral is announced for Thursday afternoon. Mr. Poehler is one of the oldest residents of the county and has been here almost half a century. He was highly respected and lived an exemplary life, as his ripe old age, seventy-eight, would indicate. He was the brother-in-law of Mr. John Krudop, of this city.

Mr. W. D. Page is the owner of a handsome, smooth-coat St. Bernard dog. The noble animal stands thirty-two inches high and is a picture. He is styled "Rector II," from Joe Emmett's famous "Rector I." He comes from the kennel of E. B. Horn, at Passaic, N. J., and has been at all the bench shows, winning this year alone $145 in premiums. He carried off the honors twice at Milwaukee, and at the New York, Chicago and St. Louis exhibitions he won the laurels and money. He was chained near Mr. Page's desk when THE SENTINEL fancier looked at him this morning and if any gentleman is thirsting for editorial gore we urge him to call at the News office before Mr. Page takes the "editor's best friend" to his home. "Rector II" is a beauty, with the marks and characteristics of his species more perfect than an artist could paint them and a registered pedigree reaching back to the Alps.

LOCAL CHAT.

Incidents and Events of Interest to People of Fort Wayne.

Pat Foley was killed in the Spottsville mines Friday.

Muncie had three fires Friday night. Loss about $1,000.

The Loomis factory, burned at Laporte a few days ago, will be rebuilt.

T. W. Davis, Cartersburg, assigned Friday. Assets, $20,000; liabilities, $40,000.

Joe Foltig, Logansport, had his arm crushed at Monticello, Friday, while coupling cars.

Frank Gorman, Shelbyville, charged with blackmailing by Dr. S. Saulsbury, has been bound over to court.

Roe Gillespie, clerk in a Knightstown hotel, confessed to having slandered a young lady to escape prosecution.

A special election for commissioner in Elkhart county, gave H. Bemenderfer (dem.) 60 majority over A. Yales, (rep.).

Thomas O. Peacock, a photographer, is on trial at Rockville, charged with making "loud" pictures of a respectable young girl of that place.

Elmer Sanders, at Greenwood depot, is the latest fool who "didn't know it was loaped," and Harry Wood was shot in the hip with a revolver.

The Friends have disowned Malinda Dennis, of Wayne county, who recently served a three months' sentence and settled a fine of $500 for stabbing her husband with a butcher-knife.

The republican sheriff and auditor-elect and five other republicans of Orange county have been arrested by the United States marshal for illegal practices at the recent election.

A child, near Marion, sitting on a chair, dropped a nursing bottle, breaking it; looking over to see it, the child fell, striking its head on a piece of glass, receiving fatal injuries.

William McCarthy, one of the oldest residents of Tippecanoe county, died about midnight Saturday. He was sixty-three years old and a brother-in-law of General Hickenlooper, of Cincinnati.

Burglars took considerable cash and $300 worth of silver from the residence of Banker A. H. Bowen, at Delphi, Friday night. Other houses were entered and valuables taken. The parties are evidently professionals.

Mr. Bilby is now being tried at Wabash for an attempt to kill Peter Carvey and son in Miami county last June. Insanity and self-defense are the two chains on which Bilby hangs his case. Hon. E. S. Daniels, of Logansport, and Hon. J. L. Farrar, of Peru, are defendant's attorneys.

The principals and teachers of the Linwood school, near Lafayette, have been entirely exonerated. A plot was revealed by one of the boys, implicating half of the school, in which they agreed to disobey their teachers, circulate false charges against them and thus endeavor to secure a teacher's dismissal.

Faith cures at Mrs. Woodworth's meetings are causing great excitement at Muncie, Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson, J. F. Keener, Mrs. Charles Halloch and Mrs. Rev. Huley, being among those claiming to have received great relief. A physician examined Mrs. Woodworth while in a trance and pronounced it "jimmery fits," yet the interest continues.

Newspaper circles at Lafayette are rife with journalistic changes and ventures. Ex-City Attorney Isaac Parsons and J. E. Mick, proprietors of the Weekly Bulletin, have purchased the Weekly Despatch, both democratic, and will consolidate them into the Bulletin-Despatch, which will be issued as a morning democratic daily. The organ of the Knights of Labor, the Labor World, will, on the 15th inst, begin a morning daily; and ex-Senator Francis Johnson, editor of the Deutsch-Amerikaner, will, on January 1, commence the publication of a daily morning paper in German. Lafayette, with her 25,000 inhabitants, will then have four morning and two evening dailies—three republican, two democratic and one labor union. Politically this city is about a tie, and each paper desires the city printing, and a big fight will be made in the next spring election.

"Lost in London."

"Lost in London," a fine spectacular drama, was produced by Newton Beers and his superb company at the Academy of Music last evening. Almost every seat in the house was occupied and the enthusiastic manner in which the rendition of the various characters in the piece was received by the audience indicated a high appreciation of the drama and the talent of the company. Limited space forbids a lengthy notice of the entertainment, but we cannot refrain from noticing a few of the leading casts. Newton Beers, as "Job Armroyd," and Jessie Lee Randolph, as "Nellie Armroyd," were prominent characters in the drama and several times during the evening, when their parts were particularly pathetic, the sobs of tender-hearted women were heard on all sides. Even strong men were suddenly reminded of a "distressing cold in the head" and were unusually active in applying handkerchiefs to watery eyes. Lauren Rees, as "Gilbert Featherstone," the villain and libertine in the plot, performed his part in a creditable manner. Mr. Rees is young, very handsome both in physique and features, and is probably one of the most promising actors on the stage. We predict for him a high standing in his profession. The Panpipe singers are a new feature and very entertaining. Their selections were excellent and each one was heartily applauded. Miss Kate Romain, a contralto of considerable note, sang some beautiful solos, which were repeatedly encored. In short, the entire company are good and will undoubtedly play to crowded houses during their engagement here. They remain all week.

Narrow Escapes—One Life Lost.

Baltimore, Dec. 7.—Early this morning in a fire on Eutaw street, near Preston, the police rescued thirteen persons from the buildings, but Mrs. Ann Pack, aged ninety years, was burned to death.

The Weather.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The weather indications are as follows:

Indiana, fair weather, stationary temperature.

Pure blood is absolutely necessary in order to enjoy perfect health. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and strengthens the system.

Theyare Not Sorry.

There is one thing nobody ever regrets —that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Its range is so wide, and its good effects so sure, that nothing else, except good nursing, are needed in a great majority of cases. Buy it, try it, and afterwards it will not require any praise from us.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Jan. 19-eodaw1y.

Ale as a name for malt liquor was probably first introduced into England by the Danes, as the name ol is still the name of malt liquor among the Scandinavian nations. The Anglo-Saxons used the word beer until the irruption of the Danes, but the word beer was gradually disused, and the name ale was general until the introduction of hops from Germany in the reign of Henry VIII. With the hops came again into use the German or Saxon word bier, or beer, which was at first applied only to the hopped liquor to distinguish it from ale—that which was unhopped.

GREAT ENTERPRISE.

The Century Magazine, with its enormous circulation (edition of November number is a quarter of a million) and great resources, has never undertaken a greater work than the one which will be its important feature during the coming year. This is a history of our own country in its most critical time, as set forth in

THE LIFE OF LINCOLN,

BY HIS CONFIDENTIAL SECRETARIES, JOHN G. NICOLAY AND COL. JOHN HAY.

This great work, begun with the sanction of President Lincoln, and continued under the authority of his son, the Hon. Robt. T. Lincoln, is the only full and authoritative record of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Its authors were friends of Lincoln before his presidency; they were most intimately associated with him as private secretaries throughout his term of office, and to them were transferred upon Lincoln's death all his private papers. Here will be told the inside history of the civil war and of President Lincoln's administration,—important details of which have hitherto remained unrevealed, that they might first appear in this authentic history. By reason of the publication of this work, which has been followed with unflagging interest by a great audience, will occupy less space during the coming year, but will by no means be entirely omitted. Stories of naval engagements, prison life, etc., will appear.

THE WAR SERIES,

NOVELS AND STORIES

include a novel by Frank R. Stockton, two novelettes by George W. Cable, stories by Mary Hallock Foote, "Uncle Remus," Edward Eggleston, and other American authors.

SPECIAL FEATURES

(with illustrations) include a series of articles on affairs in Russia and Siberia, by George Kennan, author of "Tent Life in Siberia," who has just returned from a most eventful visit to Siberian prisons; papers on the Labor Problem; English Cathedrals; Dr. Eggleston's Religious Life in the American Colonies; Men and Women of Queen Anne's Reign, by Mrs. Oliphant; Clairvoyance, Spiritualism, Astrology, etc.; Astronomical papers; articles on Bible History, etc.

St. JACOBS OIL
INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM
POWERFUL PROOFS.

A Sufferer for 15 Years.

Kankakee, Ill.

My mother has been a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism for the last fifteen years. Her limbs became so swollen that she could not get about. I gave up all hopes of her recovery. As a last resort I tried St. Jacobs Oil. The first application gave her relief; and six bottles has performed a cure. J. J. SCHUBERT.

Had Become Chronic.

De Pere, Wis.

For five years I suffered with inflammatory rheumatism, which became chronic. Tried various preparations, consulted the best physicians, but all without avail. I was compelled to use crutches. I had given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I heard of St. Jacobs Oil. Used only three bottles and am now a well man. JOHN RILEY.

Worth Its Weight in Gold.

New Alexandria, Ohio.

I was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism for several weeks to such an extent that I could neither feed nor dress myself without assistance. I purchased a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and after using two-thirds of it I was entirely cured. I consider it worth its weight in gold.

O. E. JONES.

Suffered Untold Agony and Cured.

Amesbury, Mass.

For two years I have been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism in my foot, the pain being so great that I was unable to touch it without suffering untold agony. I tried everything without obtaining any relief, when I began to use St. Jacobs Oil. With the first application, the pain almost instantaneously ceased, and continuing its use I was entirely cured and have felt no pain since.

THE MOEN-WILSON CASE.

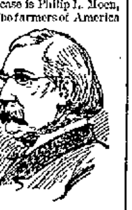

The Principal Parties to a Famous Lawsuit.

At present dates the Wilson-Moen case stands as the great mystery. The watery-eyed young man who yet has a square jaw and an insinuating nose, you observe, sues Philip L. Moen, Esq., for $100,000, alleged to be due him on a contract. There had already been paid him on that contract $350,000, he says, and it is admitted that a very large sum had been paid. Wilson was a poor and illiterate youth who did not learn to read and write when he was a boy. He never went to school. He has never given any evidence of being a poor boy who worked his way up till providence blessed his labors and made him a millionaire. On the contrary, the only marked ability he seems to have manifested was a talent for spending money. That talent he cultivated assiduously and joyously, till he fairly rivaled Coal Oil Johnny in capacity to run through with wealth.

LEVI P. WILSON.

The defendant in the case is Philip L. Moen, of Worcester, Mass. The farmers of America will immediately be in sympathy in a lump with Wilson, when it is mentioned that Moen made his millions out of the barbed wire fence patents, of which he is owner. They will say they hope Wilson will gouge him well, as he has gouged them with barbed wires for the past twenty years. However, the barbed wire fence patent has run out, and Wilson plainly has gouged him well.

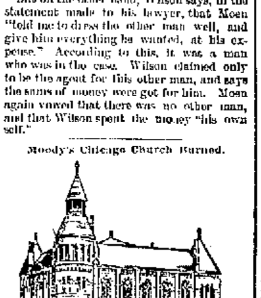

PHILIP L. MOEN.

Moen owns a beautiful residence in Worcester, and is a highly respected citizen. He refused to pay the $100,000, hence the law suit, which he has won at the first trial. But the law, instead of clearing up the matter, has only deepened the mystery. What did Moen pay Wilson so much money for? However weak Mr. Levi Wilson's whiskers are, his power of keeping a secret is sufficiently strong. Moen denies there was any secret at all worth speaking of, and declares it was a case of pure blackmail. But why, then, did he pay this shrewd young man $350,000?

So far, the affair shows that secrets can be kept, even in our age of the world, in spite of newspapers and detectives. One surmise is that there was a woman story in the respectable Mr. Moen's case, and that he wouldn't have had it get out for all the world. Innocent citizens of the first water have been trapped by atrociously wicked women before now, even when the citizen was 60 years old and no handsomer than Mr. Moen.

But on the other hand, Wilson says, in the statement made to his lawyer, that Moen "told me to dress the other man well, and give him everything he wanted, at his expense." According to this, it was a man who was in the case. Wilson claimed only to be the agent for this other man, and says the sums of money were got for him. Moen again vowed that there was no other man, and that Wilson spent the money "his own self."

Moody's Chicago Church Burned.

CHICAGO AVENUE OR MOODY'S CHURCH.

The friends of Dwight L. Moody, the celebrated evangelist, were pained to hear that the church for which he had collected $100,100 from all parts of the globe was destroyed. The fire was caused by an overheated flue, and will only cause a temporary inconvenience to the congregation, as, although the interior was destroyed, the loss will be but $20,000, while the insurance is $60,000 on the building.

Moody's church was begun in 1873 and finished in two years. The main auditorium had a seating capacity of 2,000, while the lecture room would accommodate about 500 more.

The Texas Tribune says: "The late atmospheric freshness has brought on many cases of cough and cold and Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is in great demand."

"What wound did ever heal but by degrees?" The thousand cases daily cured by Salvation Oil.

A MOST amusing scene to philosophic spirits recently occurred at a London Court in a litigation concerning the ownership of a donkey. The presiding Judge, borrowing a hint from Solomon and the Caliphs of Bagdad, had the animal brought into Court to test the allegation of the defendant that it would eat bread or vegetables offered it "with Lord Salisbury's compliments," but would reject the same with symptoms of loathing and contempt when Mr. Gladstone was named as the donor. As it happened, the wily quadruped, when challenged by the claimant, not only devoured indiscriminately the Tory and Liberal carrots, showing no partisan spirit whatever, but, when the experiment was acknowledged a failure set up such mixed notes of exultation and protest that the magistrate, deafened by the outrageous bray, summarily dismissed the claim.

"Caveat Emptor," the phrase it is Latin,
It means "let the buyer beware.',
A maxim in law which comes rather pat, in
The truth that I wish to declare;
Whene'r an invention that's good for prevention
Of pain has a popular fame,
You'll find, in all nations, arise imitations
Palmed off 'just as good,' or "the same,"
If POND'S EXTRACT buying, you find seller trying
With counterfeits you to ensnare,
The genuine choose, the spurious refuse,
Remember, let buyer beware.

MILT TROUTMAN, who had his hand crushed some time ago while coupling cars at Meadville, Pa., soon after the accident, which necessitated the amputation of his hand, complained of his lost hand paining him, and seeming to be in a cramped condition. He said that his thumb was closed in the palm of his hand and his fingers were clutched tightly to it. L. M. Williams and others, prompted by curiosity, secured the assistance of the German employed by Dr. Griswould, who had buried the hand, and disinterred it. They found it exactly in the condition described by Troutman, and what is more strange and marvelous, when they opened the fingers of the hand, Troutman, who was not aware of their actions, experienced plainly the sensation, and was relieved of the pain he suffered.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

After Diphtheria.

Diphtheria is a terrible disease; requiring the greatest medical skill to effect a combleto cure. Even when its power is broken, it clings to the patient with great pesistency, and often leaves the system poisoned and prostrated. Just here Hood's Sarsaparilla does a vast amount of good, expelling impurities from the blood, giving it richness and vitality, while it renovates and strenghtens the system.

Food for Consumptives.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites is a most wonderful remedy. It not only gives strength and increases the fles h but heals the irritation of the throat and lungs. Palatable as milk, and in all wasting diseases, both for adults and children, is a marvelous food anp medicine.

Judge Mitchell, of the supreme court, recently rendered the following decision, which is of some interest to trustees: "When trustees with others have become general depositors in a bank which has become insolvent, and whose assets are in the hands of a receiver for distribution among all its creditors, according to law, such trustees stand in relation of debtor and creditor between themselves and the bank and are upon no different level from other general depositors."

The state statistician has received reports from 695 townships of the state regarding the killing of sheep by dogs and the payment for them. In these townships a total of $51,872 has been paid for sheep thus killed, an average of $81 to the township, and if this ratio is kept up the total losses paid in the state would amount to $72,588. The number of sheep killed by dogs in 1885, so far as reported, was 29,562, which, at an estimated value of $3.50 each, would give a total of $103,399. The entire dog tax collected amounted to $185,972.

The Indianapolis Journal and other republican papers are devoting columns of space to convince Judge Lowry that it is useless for him to make a contest against Captain J. B. White. This sudden interest in Mr. Lowry's case from such a source is decidedly refreshing, and positively as queer as the statement of local papers that the governor's certificate has some weight in the controversy over Mr. White's eligibility. It is dawning on people that this question has had sufficient airing and it ought to be laid aside until such a time as congress sees fit to consider it. It is annoying to Captain White, annoying to Judge Lowry and tiresome to a long-suffering public.

An appeal will be made to have the Broadway sewer extended to the railroad crossing, the streets paved with pine blocks and the sidewalks widened to fifteen feet to give more room for the chicken coops, store boxes, salt and whisky barrels now scattered along the narrow sidewalk. No theatrical event this season has elicited so much interest as the appearance of Mr. Robert Downing here Friday night as "Spartacus," the Gladiator. Mr. Downing is the youngest tragedian who ever starred, and from his very first appearance achieved success, his wonderful talent bringing him to the front at once, on a level with Forest and McCullough. Mr. Downing's youth, magnificent physique, and fine personal appearance have added to his success, but the personal magnetism of the man is something wonderful, and next to a profound study of his art, it has been one of the most important factors in his rapid advancement.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union has issued a fervent appeal to the Knights of Labor to co-operate with them for the cause of temperance. The address is a lengthy document and says: We appreciate the tendency of your great movement to elevate women industrially to their rightful place by claiming that they should have equal pay for equal work, recognizing them as officers and members of your societies, and advocating the ballot in their hands as their rightful weapon of self-help in our representative government. As temperance women, we have been especially glad to note your hostile attitude toward the saloon, the worst foe of women and of the workingman and of the home. We read with joy of the vow made by the newly-elected officers of the Knights of Labor at the convention in Richmond, Va., when, with hands raised to Heaven, they pledged themselves to be total abstainers throughout their term of office.

Mrs. Julia Scott has applied for a divorce from Colonel John A. Scott, the bill poster and theatrical manager. She charges cruelty, specifying that he knocked her down, choked her and pointed a revolver at her. She also alleges that he chopped his furniture up with an axe and is characterized by her as a "dangerous man." Mr. P. B. Colerick paints Scott as a very bad man and the colonel will file a reply. Sheriff Nelson last evening at 5 o'clock served notice of the suit on Mr. Scott and an order restraining him from disposing of his personal property. Colonel Scott's rejoinder may be very spicy, and we await his side of the matrimonial engagement.

ON THE WABASH.

A Special Train Knocks a Wagon and Its Occupants Sky High.

While John and James Morgan (colored) were crossing the Wabash track on Indiana avenue, at Lafayette, with a two-horse wagon, along came a special train at a fastspeed, carrying the officials of the road from an inspecting tour. Then came a crash, and the wagon was instantly converted into kindling wood. The two men were thrown headlong twenty-five feet into the air, and one of the horses was killed and the other terribly mangled. John Morgan was injured internally, and will likely die. His brother James was badly cut in the head and otherwise bruised.

A Big Rubber Manufactory Offered Fort Wayne.

FAIRFIELD, CONN., Dec. 3, 1886.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

Having been in Fort Wayne and noting it to be a good place to locate a factory, I will make the following offer to the citizens of Fort Wayne or to those having capital and wishing to place it into one of the best paying businesses of the present time: I will start a factory for the manufacture of rubber clothing, carriage covers and rubber blankets. I have had seven years experience in the manufacture of rubber goods and can bring the best of reference. The factory would employ about 100 hands at the start, part males and part females. Now here is a chance for capitalists that answer this inside of ten days.

Yours respectfully,

D. H. MURPHY,

(P. O. box, 93.) Fairfield, Conn.

JUDGE TAYLOR.

He is Aroused From a Burning Building at Huntington.

A house belonging to H. M. Purviance, at Huntington, caught fire Sunday morning. It adjoins the Exchange hotel, and being a frame structure burned like oil. In a room in this building slept Hon. R. S. Taylor, of Fort Wayne, and when a stream of water was turned on the house it flushed through the window and into the room occupied by the Judge. He had left orders to be called for the train east on the Wabash, but did not fancy the new method of being awakened. He, however, got out of his apartment quickly and saw the timber cindered behind him.
